SERVICE ANIMAL POLICY

A. Definitions and eligibility

- Service animals include “assistive and therapeutic” animals.
- Only people with disabilities may have service animals.
- PHA will obtain verification of the need for the service animal from a qualified professional.
- Service animals do not require a pet deposit.

B. Approval

A Service Animal Request and the Veterinary Certification must be completed prior to having the animal. The following information must be provided:

- Basic information about the animal (type, size, weight, description, etc.)
- Proof of inoculation and licensing.
- Proof of neutering or spaying. (All service animals must be spayed or neutered, unless a veterinarian certifies that the spaying or neutering would be inappropriate.)

C. Denial of approval

The PHA reserves the right to refuse to register a service animal if:

- The service animal owner fails to provide verification of the need for a service animal from a qualified professional.
- The owner does not provide complete service animal registration.
- The service animal is not licensed.
- The service animal does not have veterinary certification.

The Peninsula Housing Authority does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, age, familial status, marital status, national origin, sex, gender identity, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sexual orientation, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability in admission or access to its programs. If you need a reasonable accommodation, contact the PHA at (360) 452-7631.

D. Care of service animals

- Residents must prevent any damage to their unit, the immediate adjacent grounds, and the common grounds of the community in which they live.
- Service animals may not be a nuisance or a threat to the health or safety of PHA employees, postal workers, the public or other residents in the community by reason of noise, unpleasant odors, or other objectionable situations.
- Owners of the service animal will be totally liable for damages and/or injuries caused by the animal.
- Residents are responsible for all damage caused by a service animal and must reimburse the PHA for all costs it incurs in repairing such damage.
- All service animals shall be on a leash and always kept under control when they are outside the unit.
- Service animal owners will be required to immediately clean up and dispose of pet waste.

E. Violation procedures

Violation of this service animal policy shall be considered violations of the lease agreement and shall be handled accordingly, including the tenant's right to a hearing under the PHA Grievance Procedure.

Failure to comply with any part of these policies and/or to take corrective action after sufficient notice of the violation shall be cause for termination of the lease.

F. Amending the Service Animal Policy

The PHA may amend the Service Animal Policy following the procedures established for amending the Statement of Occupancy Policies.

G. Inability to care for service animals.

In the event a resident cannot care for his/her service animal due to an illness, absence, or death, PHA will contact the people listed on the Request to Allow a Service Animal form. If the persons listed cannot be contacted, after 24 hours the resident hereby gives permission for the service animal to be released to the Human Society/Animal Control in accordance with their procedures. In no case shall PHA incur any costs or liability for the care of a service animal placed in the care of another individual or agency under this procedure.

The Peninsula Housing Authority does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, age, familial status, marital status, national origin, sex, gender identity, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sexual orientation, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability in admission or access to its programs. If you need a reasonable accommodation, contact the PHA at (360) 452-7631.
